Call to Order
The Chairman called the meeting to order at 5:13P.M.

Speakers
Claud Myers, Neighborhood Leadership Training Institute, announced this year's training (which is sponsored by the Neighborhood Services Division), scheduled for July 10 through August 23. Claud also invited members to participate in NCCJ's Citizens' Forum for Racial And Cultural Harmony (CFRACH). Call NCCJ at 390-3230 for details.

Following an introduction by the Chair, Michael Weinstein, Executive Director of the Jacksonville Economic Development Commission presented extensive information on Superbowl XXXIX, focusing on its potential impact in the Urban Core. He answered numerous questions from members and guests.

Approval of Minutes
The minutes from the April 23 meeting were approved.

New Business
Dr. Norman congratulated Rita Reagan on being nominated for an Eve Award.

Celia Miller raised concerns about the zoning element in the proposed Kings Road/Beaver Street Neighborhood Action Plan. Ken Avery, Planning & Development stated that this issue has been discussed numerous times during the development of the plan. The Chair asked that Councilwoman Yates be invited once again, to come to the CPAC to address the matter at the next meeting.

Celia also asked about funds being lost for the juvenile truancy at the A. Philip Randolph Truancy Center. Michael Bryant made a motion that the CPAC go on record in support continued funding for the program; seconded by Celia. The motion carried.

Old Business

The Chair announced the New Ways Grant Initiative review committee, JoAnn Smith, Flossie Brunson and Michael Bryant, had completed their evaluations and made their recommendations. She and the Vice-Chair concurred with their report and it was forwarded to the Jacksonville Children's Commission in order to meet the deadline. Copies of the report were distributed to members.

Announcements

Lorrie DeFrank announced the State Neighborhoods Conference, September 6-8 in Orlando and the first annual CPAC Picnic, September 22. She reminded the committee of the deadline for the Mayor's Neighborhood Matching Grant applications, June 29, 5:00 PM.

Adjourn

There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned at 6:30 PM.
