Warren Alvarez called the CPAC to order at 4:00 pm.

There was no speaker.

A quorum was called for by the Chairman. There was a motion to approve the minutes. The decision was unanimous.

Richard Berry, Chair of the Governmental Affairs Subcommittee, presented the land use and zoning items to the CPAC. The subcommittee met on March 5 and wish to take action on E 98-13 and Resolution 98-115.

A motion and a second was made to table the discussion on E 98-13 regarding a mobile home. A motion was made to appeal the Planning Commission's decision and oppose Resolution 97-149 on Yellow Bluff Road. The decision was unanimous.

Mr. Berry encouraged all interested parties to attend the Land Use and Zoning Committee Meeting on March 17 at 1:00. Ordnance 95-211 will be on the agenda and the CPAC would like to present it's case for justifying the proposed time change.
