

PROCLAMATION

ONE CITY. ONE JACKSONVILLE.

- WHEREAS: One of the fastest-growing segments of the United States veteran population is women. Of the estimated 18.2 million living veterans nationwide, approximately 1.6 million are women. The state of Florida has the nation’s second-largest population of women veterans, the majority of whom reside in Duval County; and
- WHEREAS: Women veterans have served our country with dedication, honor and bravery and, like their male counterparts, may face challenges such as post-traumatic stress disorder, sexual trauma, high divorce rates, health issues and homelessness. Women may also face unique obstacles involving gender disparities and child care needs; and
- WHEREAS: Several agencies support the specific needs of women veterans, including The Center for Women Veterans, established by Congress in 1994, and the local Northeast Florida Women Veterans Association, Inc., which upholds a commitment to ensuring women veterans in our area have the tools needed to successfully transition back to civilian life; and
- WHEREAS: In alignment with Women’s History Month, long recognized each March, the state of Florida initiated a Women Veterans Recognition Week, now in its sixth year, to be held during the third week of March; and
- WHEREAS: The City of Jacksonville joins our nation in honoring the invaluable impact women veterans make, both locally and throughout the world, during this observance of Women Veterans Recognition Week.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, LENNY CURRY, by virtue of the authority vested in me as mayor of Jacksonville, Florida, do hereby proclaim March 15-21, 2020 as in Jacksonville and encourage all citizens to join me in supporting and expressing sincere gratitude to the female veterans who have served and sacrificed in defense of our nation’s safety and freedom.

WOMEN VETERANS RECOGNITION WEEK

IN WITNESS THEREOF, this 24th day of February in the year Two Thousand Twenty

Lenny Curry

MAYOR

CITY OF JACKSONVILLE, FLORIDA
