

PROCLAMATION

ONE CITY. ONE JACKSONVILLE.

WHEREAS: There are over 61 million people with disabilities of all ages living in communities throughout the United States; and

WHEREAS: There are over 38 million Americans with disabilities who are eligible voters; and

WHEREAS: The disability community has a critical interest in policies and decisions made and enacted at local, state, and national levels that impact our lives directly; and

WHEREAS: Making sure people with disabilities have access to voting is essential if these policies are to meet the real needs of people with disabilities in our communities; and

WHEREAS: Voting is one way for the disability community to have a say in the people and policies that impact our communities; and

WHEREAS: REV UP, which stands for "Register! Educate! Vote! Use your Power!" is a national coalition working to build the power of the disability community.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, LENNY CURRY, by virtue of the authority vested in me as mayor of Jacksonville, Florida, do hereby proclaim September 12 - 16, 2022 as

DISABILITY VOTING RIGHTS WEEK

in Jacksonville and encourage all citizens to support the growing involvement of the disability community in the political process.

IN WITNESS THEREOF, this 19th Day of August in the year
Two Thousand and Twenty-Two
