

From Vision to Action: Acheiving a Resilient Jacksonville

Session ID	Time Frame	Proposed Session Topic(s)	Session Description	Panelists
Morning	8:30 a - 10:15 a	State of the River and Morning Keynote	The release of the SORR to be followed by a morning keynote. Anne Coglianese to share Resilient Jacksonville Strategy.	David Wood - JEPB Chair Largo-Wight - UNF AI Ferraro - Dir COJ Neighborhoods Pinto - JU Dr. Erin Dir COJ Dr. Gerry Anne Coglianese - Jax CRO

Resilient Jacksonville - Proactively Adapts

Resilient Jacksonville - Fosters Healthy Communities & Environments

Resilient Jacksonville - Expands Opportunities

Resilient Jacksonville - Builds for the Future

Proactive	10:30 a - 11:45 a	Proactively Adpating for the Future	Exploring the data used to formulate the COJ resilience strategy and how it might be deployed
Expands	10:30 a - 11:45 a	Expanding Opportunities through Environmental Education	Coming out of the COVID-era, education and learning has changed. With a variety of ways to make connections to audiences, the interconnectedness of all experiences will foster inclusive learning opportunities and a greater sense of community. In this presentation, hear from a variety of educators and community members about the innovative methods that engage individuals of ALL ages and the life skills these individuals can take back into their communities.
Fosters	10:30 a - 11:45 a	Riverfront 2025 - What's the Latest?	A panel discussion providing an update to plans to create resilient green space along the riverfront
Builds	10:30 a - 11:45 a	JEA's Comprehensive Resilience Plans for Jacksonville	Exploring the various strategic plans for building resilient and reliable infrastructure in JEA's energy, environment, water and wastewater sectors. A view into what it takes to plan for the future from a community owned utility prospective.

Break

Luncheon	12:00 p - 1:15 p	Luncheon Keynote	Navy Partnership Recommissioning Announcement Dale Morris to share insights from the City of Charleston and how they approach resilience strategy.	Dale Morris - CRO Charleston
Break
Fosters	1:30 p - 2:15 p	Utilizing Traditional and Environmental Planning to Achieve a Healthy Community	Using a consequence analysis of data collected to bring a human component to the COJ resilience strategy
Proactive	1:30 p - 2:15 p	Resilient Florida	Exploring various projects from the region utilizing support from various Resilient Florida programs
Expands	1:30 p - 2:15 p	Maximizing Access and Minimizing Barriers	Exploring resilience through a social and environmental justice lens	Moderator - Ashantae Green (tentative) Laureen Hubbard, Feeding NE Florida and Just Food Network (confirmed) Gloria McNair, Groundwork Jacksonville (confirmed) Nicole Hamm or Marlo Zarka, Blue Zone Project (confirmed)
Builds	1:30 p - 2:15 p	Regional Resilience Planning Efforts	Exploring some regional efforts to approach resilience
Break
Expands	2:30 p - 3:15 p	Fostering a Culture of Collaboration in Resilience Efforts	How partnerships and collaborative approaches can be used in the COJ resilience strategy
Fosters	2:30 p - 3:15 p	Building Coastal Resilience: Navigating the Waters of Change in Beach Communities	Exploring projects in the beaches and coastal environment space
Builds	2:30 p - 3:15 p	Unlocking the Potential: Smart Cities for All Towns	Using technology to enhance or improve resilience
Proactive	2:30 p - 3:15 p	Military Installation Resilience Strategy	Exploring various projects and plans to make military installations more resilient
Break
Closing	3:30 P - 4:30 p	Achieving a Resilient Jacksonville	How the various pillars of the COJ resilience strategy will work together to achieve a resilient Jacksonville	