

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS: Architecture influences the daily lives of all citizens through the enhancement of the spaces where we live, work and play. It can help bring people together to preserve, strengthen or create a spirit of community; and

WHEREAS: Architects envision and create places for individuals and families to live and work in harmony with one another and the natural environment as well as preserve and enhance the quality of life for future generations; and

WHEREAS: From concept through permitting to construction, architects are entrusted to protect public health, safety and welfare through their concern for and understanding of important issues like growth management, accessibility, historic and natural preservation, energy consumption and more; and

WHEREAS: Jacksonville is known for its rich architectural history, including the influential work of legendary designers such as Henry John Klutho and Taylor Hardwick; and

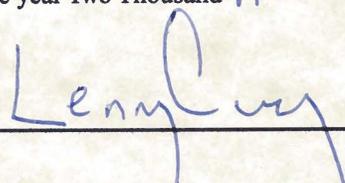

WHEREAS: The Jacksonville Chapter of the American Institute of Architects and its more than 400 members contribute greatly to our community by building and creating healthy, desirable, and sustainable environments throughout Jacksonville and Northeast Florida.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, LENNY CURRY, by virtue of the authority vested in me as mayor of Jacksonville, Florida, do hereby proclaim April 29 – May 3, 2019 as

and encourage all citizens to recognize the valuable contributions and services provided to our community by architects and related professions.

IN WITNESS THEREOF, this 27th day of March in the year Two Thousand 19
