

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS: Our community is committed to ensuring our youth have the tools they need to succeed. This includes reinforcing the necessary literacy and life skills that impact their lives from childhood into adulthood; and

WHEREAS: Educators, parents, literacy experts, industry leaders and activists in our community provide our youth with information regarding important topics such as workforce development, nutrition, fitness, financial literacy and planning, communication and life skills; and

WHEREAS: Additional opportunities and guidance must be available for the growth and development of our children, through events, workshops, seminars, meetings, activities and programs; and

WHEREAS: The City of Jacksonville supports youth with programs and services that highlight career pathways, such as the Mayor's Youth At Work Partnership; and

WHEREAS: For this year's program, 40 employers worked with 415 young men and women to offer training, mentorship and experiences that build skills and work ethic; and

WHEREAS: Working together, youth, parents, educators, non-profit leaders and business executives are positively influencing the success and well-being of our youth for the benefit of our communities and country for generations to come.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, LENNY CURRY, by virtue of the authority vested in me as mayor of Jacksonville, Florida, do hereby proclaim July 27, 2018 as in Jacksonville and encourage all citizens to inspire youth to build a bright future for themselves and our communities.

IN WITNESS THEREOF, this 27 day of July in the year Two Thousand Eighteen

MAYOR

CITY OF JACKSONVILLE, FLORIDA
