

PROCLAMATION

ONE CITY. ONE JACKSONVILLE.

WHEREAS: On September 11, 2001, the United States endured the worst terrorist attack on American soil in history; and

WHEREAS: Our nation continues to mourn the nearly 3,000 innocent lives that were lost due to this unprovoked and cowardly attack eighteen years ago; and

WHEREAS: The acts of terrorism that day were meant to break American unity; but the strength and resiliency shown in the face of evil united people around the nation; and

WHEREAS: Each year, September 11th reminds us of tragedy, but also what binds Americans together; and

WHEREAS: Individuals, organizations, and communities throughout our Country, State, and City gather on this infamous anniversary to support one another; and

WHEREAS: Today remember the men and women who lost their lives, honor the emergency personnel who responded selflessly, and pay tribute to the men and women who protect our freedoms home and abroad. We are truly blessed to live amongst the heroes who are willing to give so much to ensure the safety of our communities and freedoms.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, LENNY CURRY, by virtue of the authority vested in me as mayor of Jacksonville, Florida, do hereby proclaim September 11, 2019 as in Jacksonville and encourage all citizens to honor the innocent victims who perished as a result of the terrorist attacks of September 11, 2001.

IN WITNESS THEREOF, this 10th day of September in the year Two Thousand Nineteen

MAYOR

CITY OF JACKSONVILLE, FLORIDA
