

PROCLAMATION

ONE CITY. ONE JACKSONVILLE.

WHEREAS: Seniors have unique knowledge and insights that makes them among our greatest community assets; and

WHEREAS: Within the next 10 years, more than one in five Americans will be of retirement age and we must make it a priority to ensure they are able to retire and live with dignity and respect; and

WHEREAS: More than 24 million people nationwide care for aging family members and the need for information about services and options for them continues to grow; and

WHEREAS: Love a Senior Day is an inaugural event taking place in Jacksonville, providing families with information they desire for their parents or loved ones. The event aims to help caregivers receive assistance and guidance, and connect with local advisors to prepare for senior care; and

WHEREAS: The event features North Florida's leading providers of services, activities, and residential options for seniors; and

WHEREAS: Let us utilize Love a Senior Day to thank the men and women who raised, guided, and inspired us, by providing them with the best opportunities they deserve.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, LENNY CURRY, by virtue of the authority vested in me as mayor of Jacksonville, Florida, do hereby proclaim October 26, 2019 as in Jacksonville and encourage all citizens to celebrate our seniors and those who care for them.

LOVE A SENIOR DAY

IN WITNESS THEREOF, this 13th day of September in the year Two Thousand Nineteen

MAYOR

CITY OF JACKSONVILLE, FLORIDA
