1. Call to Order/Verify Quorum

Chair Bobby Taylor called the meeting to order at 4:00 p.m. A quorum was verified by Neighborhood Coordinator Mary Beth Ridderman. Chair Taylor reminded everyone to silence cell phones and sign-in.

2. Approval of the Previous Meeting Summary

A motion to approve the January summary was made by Tommy Ruffin and seconded by Richard Berry. The vote: All in favor.

3. Staff Reports

- Jacksonville Sheriff's Office (JSO) Sgt. Messersmith reported:
  - In the past 30 days, reported incidents are down in the following categories: violent crime, robbery and property crime. Reported incidents are up in burglaries to residences, breaking and entering businesses and auto burglaries. There is a crime trend of breaking into cell phone stores. In most cases of auto burglaries, the vehicles were unlocked.
  - o Charter Member Berry made an inquiry about the number of homicides. Sgt. Messersmith did not have that information available.
  - o To report suspicious activity, call 630-0500.
- Mayor's Liaison Agriculture Extension Office Director, Mike Sweat reported:
  - o A Day of Gardening Feb. 22, 8:30 a.m. 2:30 p.m. $15. To register, call Becky at 255-7450.
  - o Nutrition Workshops Feb. 12 or Feb. 13, 4-5 p.m. at Brentwood Library.
  - o Grandparents Raising Grandchildren Free 8-week series, Feb. 20, 10:30 a.m. noon.
  - o The poultry ordinance passed. It allows residents to become certified to raise up to 5 hens in certain areas of the city. Only 300 permits will be issued. The first class trained 225 people, with 145 permits issued to-date. The next class has 175 people registered. The ordinance has a two year trial period which began 1/12/14. This is part of a movement to return to agriculture.
  - o For information about Extension Office classes, please call the Extension Office at 255-7450.
- Mayor's Representative David De Camp reported:
  - o The pension reform continues to make progress. A three hour meeting was held today. The task force is looking at a proposal to change the structure for new and existing employees and save $2.3 billion per year from the General Fund. They are also looking at a 401-K and pension hybrid that would offer significant savings. Mayor Brown has asked JEA to contribute to the pension. The task force requested Mayor Brown present a final analysis next week. The final document will be presented to City Council on Feb. 26. Ms. Ridderman forwarded information from the Mayor's Office with pension facts and proposed pension savings. The proposal would save $130 million for the community. To learn more, please visit www.coj.net retirement reform.
  - o A question was raised about the amount of the Mayor's Contingency Fund. David DeCamp answered the question and include the amount of the COJ reserve fund.
  - A concern was expressed regarding the pension fund and legal issues related to the existing long term agreement.
  - o A brief discussion followed and included questions and comments regarding JEA's pension contribution and the proposed gas tax extension.
- Duval County Public Schools no representative.
- Neighborhoods
  - o Housing and Community Development Division Mary Beth Ridderman reported:

  - o Municipal Code Compliance Division Bruce Chauncey reported:
    - Three officers were hired. More people are being interviewed. All officers are busy with Operation Urban Blight and other duties.

- Please call 630-CITY (2489) to register and track CARE concerns.
- Planning & Development Lisa Ransom introduced Marvin Echols.
  - o Ms. Ransom is being transferred to the Urban Core CPAC.
  - o Mr. Echols may be reached at 255-7823. Chair Taylor and Vice Chair Neidlinger welcomed Mr. Echols to the North CPAC. They thanked Lisa Ransom for her diligent service to the North CPAC and wished her well in her new position.
  - o Please call 255-7800 regarding posted signs/notices or contact Mr. Echols at 255-7823 or MEchols@coj.net.
- Parks & Recreation Shaniqua Simmons reported:
  - o Summer camp is being planned for 11 sites. Vouchers will be provided by Jacksonville Children's Commission. Registration will be available on the website by the end of February. Registration must be done on line.
  - o Parks & Recreation is working with the Extension Office on nutrition classes at community center and parks.
  - o A concern was expressed about the level of parental involvement in summer programs. (Parents or others may volunteer at any community center. A background check is required every two years. Please see Ms. Simmons for a volunteer form.)
  - o Chair Taylor thanked Ms. Simmons for her report.
  - o For more information about nutrition classes or other programs, please contact Ms. Simmons at ShaniquaS@coi.net.
- National Park Service Shauna Allen reported:
  - o The Kingsley Heritage Celebration is Feb. 15. Activities include Dr. Daniel Shaffer, guest speaker, music, a master story teller, Kingsley descendant Perry Francis, kids' activities, demonstrations of cooking, tabby-making also slaking, spinning, and harvesting Sea Island cotton and indigo. Costumed volunteers and rangers will be present.
  - o Last Saturday was Discovery Day. 85 people bird-watched from kayaks.
  - o Picture posts have started. See handout for detailed instructions to set smart phone on post, snap pictures then upload onto a national data base. This activity will document park conditions and changes.
  - o Chair Taylor thanked Ms. Allen for her report.
  - o For information about National Parks, visit http://www.nps.gov/state/fl/index.htm?program=all
- Jacksonville Electric Authority Wanyonyi "Wi" Kendrick reported:
  - o JEA's primary goals include economic development. JEA is ranked as the best utility for businesses. It is ranked above the mean for residential customers. However, the rates are slightly above the mean. JEA is looking for opportunities and next steps.
  - o Ms. Kendrick offered to arrange a presentation "Savings without Sacrifice".
  - Please visit JEA' website for solutions, such as my budget pay which averages bills over a 12 month period, and my tracker, which compares current usage to a budgeted amount.
  - o A question and answer session followed Ms. Kendrick's report.
  - o Concerns were expressed about meter malfunctions and JEA cyber security.
  - o Chair Taylor thanked Ms. Kendrick for her report.
  - o For more information, please contact Ms. Kendrick at hendwj@jea.com or 665-7217.
- FDOT (Florida Department of Transportation) no report.
  - o Tommy Ruffin thanked FDOT for changing speed limit signs on Lem Turner, North of Percy Road. The CPAC was acknowledged for its' letter of support. The neighborhood is safer because of this work.
