

Rhonda Peoples-Waters, Esquire is a practicing attorney with the law firm of Rhonda Peoples-Waters, P.A. She has been a member of the Florida Bar since 1999. Her practice areas include criminal defense, personal injury, and auto accidents. Her experience includes over 7 years as an attorney at the Public Defender's Office in Jacksonville, where she served as the Division Chief of both the Repeat Offender Court Divisions. Attorney Waters' commitment to public service is longstanding and evident by her involvement as board member of the Jacksonville branch of the NAACP, member of Alpha Kappa Alpha Community Service Sorority, and member of the Jacksonville Bar Association. She is the 2008-2009 President of the D.W. Perkins Bar Association. She is also a faithful and involved member of First Baptist Church of Oakland. Importantly, she is the proud mother of Jasmine, who is an elementary student, within the Jacksonville public school system.
