Northbank Riverwalk Park To Open To Public

Park Signifies Partnership Effort with City and Fidelity

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., May 12, 2008 — Mayor John Peyton and representatives from Fidelity National Financial and the Jacksonville Economic Development Commission will officially unveil the opening of the new Northbank Riverwalk Park located on Forest Street along the Riverwalk.

WHEN: 11 a.m.
Wednesday, May 14

WHO: Mayor John Peyton
Fidelity National Financial Representative
JEDC Executive Director Ron Barton

WHAT: Unveiling ceremony of new public park located on Forest Street – next to Fidelity's Headquarters
*Parking will be available on site *

This new public park signifies a unique private/public partnership effort between the City of Jacksonville and Fidelity National Financial and is a great step in how the city and the JEDC plan to fulfill the goals as outlined in the Downtown Action Plan.

The park will complement the many other great downtown assets and will allow the public another access to enjoy the Northbank Riverwalk and the many amenities of downtown.
