

Robin Hill

Robin Hill is the Assistant Director Research Program Services at the Florida Small Business Development Center at the University of North Florida (FSBDC at UNF), she manages a $2.4 million budget for an 18- county region. She has been with the FSBDC at UNF since 2004. She earned a bachelor's degree in business administration from Bethune-Cookman University and a master's in public administration from the University of North Florida. She currently serves as the Finance Committee Chairperson for the African American Faculty and Staff Association (AAFSA - UNF) and Administration & Professional Association Treasurer (UNF).