From JEPB Rule 1 – Organization Procedure & Practice

1.206 Formulation of Final Rules

If the Board votes to adopt a rule immediately after the conclusion of all presentations, promulgation shall proceed pursuant to Board Rule 1.207 below. However, if the Board defers action, the Board's decision on whether or not to formulate final rules shall be made at either its next regular meeting; or at a special meeting to be held at a date agreeable to a majority of the Board Members. The meeting at which the Board makes its decision will be open to the public. However, it will not be a hearing for the receipt of comments, proposals or other information on the rules. At that meeting, for voting purposes, the Board may discuss among its own membership only, the rules under consideration concurrent with the decision on whether or not to formulate final rules, the Board shall state findings and reasons for its action.

If a person decides to appeal any decision made by the Board or committee with respect to any matter considered at this meeting or hearing, such person will need a record of the proceedings and, for that purpose, such person may need to ensure that a verbatim record of the proceeding is made, which record includes the testimony and evidence upon which the appeal is to be based.
