The Bus Tour was in lieu of the April CPAC Meeting.

The tour participants met at 8:30 am at the FCCJ Deerwood Campus Conference Room B-1206.

16 CPAC members were present for the SE CPAC Bus Tour.

Areas of interest that were covered during the Bus Tour:

- Prior to departing CPAC Member Victoria Pennington, gave a presentation on the positive aspects of the proposed Baymeadows Golf Club Development Project.
- The Bus Tour's first stop was at Baptist Hospital South. The group toured the facilities.
- Driving tour of the Bartram Park developments and surrounding areas of growth
- Driving tour of the Freedom Commerce Area and review the projected project and the potential impacts it may have on the area's water/eco-system.
- Stop at the Baymeadows Golf Club to observe the layout and CPAC Member Frank Morgan gave a presentation that opposed the development.
- Tour concluded at 12:15 back at the FCCJ Deerwood Campus.

Due to the time and the size of the bus, the CPAC Members voted to end the bus tour without completing the driving tour to the new St. John's Town Center. All members were in agreement to eliminate this portion of scheduled tour.

The CPAC Sub-committees will on Monday, April 25, 2005 at 6:30 pm.

- The meeting will be held at Players Grille Miramar
- The Subcommittees will report on their finding from previous assignments

The next meeting of the Southeast District 3 CPAC is Monday, May 23, 2005, 6:30 p.m. at Mandarin Library, 3330 Kori Road.
