• Retirement benefits for Re-Hired City Employees – Paul Daragiati

TIM JOHNSON STATED THE CONTRACT HAS BEEN TERMINATED FOR THE RE-HIRED CITY EMPLOYEE. THIS IS A DEAD ISSUE.

IN THE BOARD BOOK, PAUL DARAGJATI STATED IN HIS LETTER THAT THE COMMITTEE WOULD BE WELL WITHIN THEIR FIDUCIARY RESPONSIBILITIES TO "RECOUP" THE PENSION, BUT STATED HE WOULD NOT RECOMMEND DOING THIS. THE COST MAY OUTWAY THE RETURN. BUT AT THE SAME TIME, GOING FORWARD, WE SHOULD MAKE CHANGES TO CLARIFY THE POSITIONS OF REHIRED CITY EMPLOYEES.

BRADY RIGDON SAID WE RE-COUP MONEY FROM WIDOWS WHEN THEY ARE OVERPAID. THE BOARD IS OBLIGATED TO GET BACK THE FUNDS. THERE SHOULD BE THE SAME PROCEDURE FOR BOTH.

TIM JOHNSON SAID WE COULD DO ONE OF TWO THINGS:

- 1. TAKE ACTION TO SEND A LETTER NOW AND VERIFY CITY EMPLOYMENT WITH A COPY OF THEIR CONTRACT, OR
- 2. INCLUDE A REQUEST WITH THE AFFIDAVIT SEND SOMETHING NOW OR WAIT UNTIL AUGUST, 2017 WHEN WE DO THE ANNUAL AFFIDAVIT PROGRAM.

MICHAEL SCHELL RECOMMENDED WE SEND THIS NOW WHILE IT IS STILL FRESH IN OUR MINDS.

Jacksonville animal shelter 'chief' temporarily off the job

In August 2015 certified animal behaviorist Jim Crosby calms a frightened Chow mix confiscated in a Putnam County hoarding case and taken to First Coast No More Homeless Pets in Jacksonville. In 2016 Crosby was named head of Jacksonville Animal Care and Protective Services. (Bruce Lipsky/Florida Times-Union)

Animal behaviorist Jim Crosby's 10-month tenure at the helm of Jacksonville Animal Control and Protective Services ended Dec. 31 but his departure is expected to be temporary.

City officials plan to bring him back to the city shelter in 30 to 45 days after ironing out changes to his contract, said city spokeswoman Tia Ford.

Crosby led the agency as an independent consultant since March 2016, although at the time Ford said he had been hired as division chief. He was enlisted as a consultant because of a city law that bans city pensioners from returning to city employment later.

He was a lieutenant for the Jacksonville Sheriff's Office for 22 years.

Some city positions are exempt from the ban, but the animal control division chief is not one of them.

Crosby, whose initial contract ended Dec. 31, referred questions to Ford.

"There was a desire to modify Crosby's contract to better align with alternate duties and responsibilities to better assist the organization," Ford said in an email. "The plan is to bring him back as a consultant, as soon as possible, once the contract has been modified."

She said she could not yet address how the contract may be modified.

"We have no information to provide at this time as the contract has not been finalized," she said.

Crosby is a certified canine behavior consultant and has run a consulting firm specializing in dog training, aggressive dog evaluation and rehabilitation for about 18 years. He is also a fatal dog attack investigator and legislative consultant on animal control and dangerous dog issues, according to his LinkedIn page.

In addition, he was animal control division manager in Bay County for about three years.

In Crosby's absence, Stephanie Burch, director of the city's Neighborhoods Department that includes Animal Control and Protective Services, and other shelter staff "are keeping tabs on the division and handling duties as required." Ford said.

Other members of the local animal welfare community applauded Crosby's selection to run the city shelter, calling him a well-respected professional and advocate. They said he had the experience to maintain the city's no-kill status, which means at least 90 percent of shelter animals leave alive and the only ones put down are ill or have behavioral problems.

The city reached that goal in 2014, largely due to a partnership between the shelter and other area animal welfare groups that focused on adoption and spay/neuter programs.

The city's inspector general is apparently still investigating allegations made by a whistle-blower in August 2015 that shelter staffer falsified reports and turned away animals in order to maintain no-kill status.

In November, Director of Investigations Lisa Green said she expected resolution "after the new year."

Monthly Distribution Form of DROP Benefits

Dear Trustees:

Re:

You have requested our opinion as to whether the Board's procedures with regard to monthly distribution DROP benefits under Section 121.209(c)(3)(ii)(d) of the City of Jacksonville Code of Ordinances comply with the City Code and Sections 72(t) and 401(a)(9) of the Internal Revenue Code (hereinafter "IRC"). For the reasons, and based upon the understandings set forth below, it is our opinion that the Board's procedures comply with the Code of Ordinances and the aforementioned sections of the IRC.

Section 121.209(c)(3)(ii)(d) of the Code of Ordinances provides:

Monthly distribution. The account balance shall be distributed in a monthly amount paid biweekly of substantially equal amounts, until the DROP account is depleted, over a stipulated number of bi-weekly periods to be selected by the Participant or the surviving spouse, less withholding taxes remitted to the Internal Revenue Service. Such selection once made, cannot be changed, unless changed to Option (a) or (b), above. For Members with less than 20 years of service as of the effective date of Ordinance 2015-304-E, the annual rate of interest to be factored into the biweekly distributions and credited as the rate earned on the account balance will change each January and shall be the money-weighted rate of return as presented in the plan's most recent audited financial statements as required by Statement 67 of GASB; provided however, that the minimum interest shall be 2.0 percent and the maximum interest shall be 14.4 percent. For Members with 20 or more years of service as of the effective date of Ordinance 2015-304-E, the annual rate of interest to be factored into such distribution period shall be 8.4 percent. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event that the Participant selected a payout period over the Participant's life expectancy or over the joint life expectancies of the Participant and the Participant's spouse in order to avoid the application of the ten percent additional tax on early distributions reflected in Section 72(t) of the Internal Revenue Code, such Participant may shorten the number of biweekly payout periods originally selected by the Participant, provided that the timing of such modification conforms to the standards described in Section 72(t)(4) of the Internal Revenue Code.

In addition, Section 121.209(c)(3)(iii) of the Code provides:

The form of payment selected by the DROP participant or surviving spouse shall comply with the minimum distribution requirements per Section 401(a)(9) of the Internal Revenue Code.

A question has arisen as to whether the Code of Ordinances and/or the IRC limit the "stipulated number of bi-weekly periods" over which a DROP member or survivor may choose to receive the payment of DROP benefits, and if so, whether the Board's procedures are consistent with that limit.

As set forth below, the Code of Ordinances limits the duration of DROP payouts only to the extent required under Section 401(a)(9) of the IRC, and the Board's procedures are consistent with the applicable limits.

Our opinion is based upon the following understanding of your procedures, and is subject to change if any part of the procedures is not as stated. A member (or surviving spouse in the case of a deceased member) electing to receive monthly distribution of his/her DROP benefits under Section 121.209(c)(3)(ii)(d) of the Code of Ordinances, informs the fund's pension office of the number of bi-weekly pay periods over which the member or survivor wishes to receive The pension staff apply the procedures set forth in Section 2(f) of the his/her benefit. Jacksonville Police and Fire Pension Fund Standard Procedures Manual (PFPF Standard Procedures Manual) and the flow chart appended to that Section, in order to determine whether the requested number of bi-weekly payments complies with Section 401(a)(9) of the IRC. Furthermore, in the case of a member who will not have attained the age of 50 by the end of the calendar year in which the member separates from service, and who does not wish to pay the 10% tax on early distributions under Section 72(t) of the IRC, the pension staff will determine in accordance with Section 2(f) of the PFPF Standard Procedures Manual whether the requested distribution schedule satisfies the exemption from the tax provided in Section 72(t)(2)(A)(iv) of the Code, or whether any other exemption under Section 72(t) applies. The tables and methodologies that the pension staff use to test the benefit request are those set forth in Section 2(f) of the Jacksonville Police and Fire Pension Fund Standard Procedures Manual. If the requested number of payments is consistent with the applicable tables, the requested distribution schedule is approved. If the requested number of payments is inconsistent with the tables, the staff so informs the applicant, and a revised amount that is consistent with the tables is agreed upon.

1. The Code of Ordinances

As set forth above, Section 121.209(c)(3)(ii)(d) provides in pertinent part:

The account balance shall be distributed in a monthly amount paid biweekly of substantially equal amounts, until the DROP account is depleted, over a stipulated number of bi-weekly periods to be selected by the Participant or the surviving spouse

This section clearly permits the member (or surviving spouse) to choose the number of bi-weekly periods over which he/she wishes to spread the distribution of his benefit, and does not set any limit in that regard.

Section 121.209(c)(3)(iii) (referenced above), however, applies to all forms of DROP payments, and requires that such payments comply with Section 401(a)(9) the IRC.

Accordingly, the member (or surviving spouse) may choose to receive his/her benefits over any number of bi-weekly periods, so long as that duration is consistent with Section 401(a)(9).

Since, as discussed further below, the pension staff test all benefit requests under Section 121.209(c)(3)(ii)(d) for compliance with Section 401(a)(9) of the IRC, it is our opinion that your procedures comply with the relevant provisions of the Code of Ordinances.

2. How does the Internal Revenue Code impact the number of payments? Sections 72(t) and 401(a)(9).

a. §72(t)

Section 72(t) IRC imposes a 10% tax on early distributions (payments) from qualified plans. The Section does not define the term "early distributions," but enumerates several exceptions to the tax, generally related to the age of the recipient. Among those exceptions, two are relevant here.

Section 72(t)(10) provides an exception for payments to qualified public safety employees in governmental plans, who separate from service after attainment of age 50. Subparagraph 10(B)(1) defines qualified public safety employees as, "Any employee of a State or political subdivision of a State who provides police protection, firefighting services...for any area within the jurisdiction of such State or political subdivision." Generally, under that provision, any payment from the DROP to a participant of the plan who separates from service for the City after age 50 is exempt from the early distribution tax.

Section 72(t)(2)(A)(iv) also provides an exemption for payments that are part of a series of substantially equal periodic payments made for the life of the employee or the joint lives of the employee and his/her designated beneficiary. Internal Revenue Service Revenue Ruling 2002-62 provides guidance for determining whether a distribution qualifies as a series of substantially equal periodic payments. In particular, Revenue Ruling 2002-62 sets forth three methods for calculating substantially equal payments, and designates three life expectancy tables that can be used for determining the life expectancy of the employee and the joint life expectancies of the employee and his/her designated beneficiary.

We understand that the pension staff use the Required Minimum Distribution Method that is approved in Revenue Ruling 2002-62 for calculating substantially equal payments.

With regard to the life expectancy tables, we understand, in accordance with Section 2(f) of the PFPF Standard Procedures Manual, that unmarried members are permitted to choose the result obtained using either the uniform lifetime table in Appendix A of Revenue Ruling 2002-62 or the single life expectancy table in Section 1.401(a)(9)-9, Q&A-1 of the Treasury Regulations. Married members are permitted to choose the result obtained using either of the aforementioned tables, or the joint life and last survivor table in 1.401(a)(9)-9, Q&A-3.

Revenue Procedure 2002-62 specifically approves the use of the foregoing tables.

Because the calculation method and expectancy tables used by the pension staff are those provided in IRS Revenue Ruling 2002-62, your procedures for determining whether a requested benefit payment qualifies as a "series of substantially equal periodic payments made for the life of the employee or the joint lives of the employee and his/her designated beneficiary" comply with IRS guidance with regard to Section 72(t).

b. §401(a)(9)

Section 401(a)(9) IRC limits the number of years over which a benefit may be distributed. Generally, with regard to distributions that commence during the lifetime of the participant, Section 1.401(a)(9)-2, Q&A-1 of the treasury regulations provides as follows:

In order to satisfy section 401(a)(9)(A), the entire interest of each employee must be distributed to such employee not later than the required beginning date, or must be distributed, beginning not later than the required beginning date, over the life of the employee or joint lives of the employee and a designated beneficiary or over a period not extending beyond the life expectancy of the employee or the joint life and last survivor expectancy of the employee and the designated beneficiary.

"Required beginning date" is defined in Section 401(a)(9) as April 1 of the calendar year following the later of the calendar year in which the employee attains age 70 ½ or the calendar year in which the employee retires from employment with the employer maintaining the plan. Under Section 1.401(a)(9)-2, Q&A-4 of the treasury regulations, distributions that occur before a participant's required beginning date are not required to comply with the minimum distribution rules under Section 401(a)(9).

Under 1.401(a)(9)-5, Q&A-1, if an employee's benefit is in the form of an individual account, the minimum amount required to be distributed in any applicable calendar year is determined by dividing the account balance by the "applicable distribution period," the latter of which is based upon life expectancy.

Section 1.401(a)(9)-5, Q&A-4 specifies the life expectancy tables that are to be used in the determination of the applicable distribution period.

In the case of an unmarried participant (or a married participant whose spouse is not the sole beneficiary), the required table is the Uniform Lifetime Table in A-2 of Section 1.401(a)(9)-9 of the treasury regulations. According to Section 2(f) of the PFPF Standard Procedures Manual and the flow chart appended to that Section, that is the table that the pension staff use in such instances.

With regard to a married participant whose spouse is the sole designated beneficiary, the applicable tables are the Uniform Lifetime Table referenced above and the joint life table in A-3 Section 1.401(a)(9)-9, depending upon the difference in age between the participant and the spouse. According to Section 2(f) of the PFPF Standard Procedures Manual and the flow chart appended to that Section, those are the tables that the pension staff use in the case of a married participant whose spouse is the sole beneficiary.

Since you have informed us that the pension staff use the life expectancy tables that are provided in the regulations, it is our opinion that your procedures comply with Section 401(a)(9) IRC.

Conclusion

For all of the foregoing reasons, and based upon your Standard Procedures Manual and our above understandings, it is our opinion:

- That the Board's procedures with regard to the implementation of the monthly payment DROP benefit under Code Section 121.209(c)(3)(ii)(d) comply with the Code of Ordinances;
- 2) That the Board's procedures with regard to the implementation of the monthly distribution of DROP benefits under Code Section 121.209(c)(3)(ii)(d) comply with Sections 72(t) and 401(a)(9) of the IRC.

This opinion relates only to the procedures of the Board as communicated to us. We have not undertaken to review or confirm any DROP benefit payments under the plan, since that is beyond both your query to us and our expertise. Therefore no opinion is rendered as to the conformity of any individual benefit calculations or payment periods.

We look forward to discussing this matter with you during your next meeting.

Sincerely,

ROBERT A. SUGARMAN
