

David Rybak (Ethics Commission)

David Rybak began his service on the Jacksonville Ethics Commission in January 2016 after being appointed by a majority vote of its members. Since 2017, Mr. Rybak has chaired the Internal Operations Committee which provides oversight of the Strategic Planning sessions for the Commission.

Mr. Rybak has been a resident of Jacksonville, Florida since 2013 and has recently retired from Johnson & Johnson after a career that spanned over 30 years. He is a Certified Public Accountant from New Jersey and his other certifications include Certified Compliance and Ethics Professional and International Association of Privacy Professionals – United States.