

Northwest Jacksonville Economic Development Fund (NWJEDF)

U.S. Small Business Administration

Attention Jacksonville Business Communities—are you seeking assistance to purchase, renovate or construct a new or existing building in the Northwest area?

The U.S. Small Business Administration (SBA) invites you to learn about the Northwest Jacksonville Economic Development Fund (NWJEDF). The goal of the NWJEDF is to help attract new businesses and expand existing businesses, creating new jobs and expanding the tax base. The SBA, in collaboration with the City of Jacksonville, is hosting this free event for business owners, entrepreneurs and developers.

You will hear from a participating lender, Wells Fargo, and the president of Eastern Wire who will describe how this program supported his small business dreams.

Tuesday, April 18, 2023 • 3:00 PM – 4:30PM

7825 Baymeadows Way, Suite 100B

Jacksonville, FL 32256 (Park on Lakeside of Building)

The event is free but seating is limited. To register, for additional information, or for reasonable accommodations, please contact Natalie Hall at Natalie.hall@sba.gov or click or scan the QR code.

All SBA Programs and services are extended to the public on a nondiscriminatory basis.
