COJ.net > City Council > City Council Members > Clay Yarborough

Welcome

Clay Yarborough grew up in Jacksonville and attended the University of North Florida where he earned a Bachelor's degree in Business Management.

While in high school, and operating television cameras at City Council meetings, Clay became interested in public service. In November 2000, at age 19, he was elected to a seat on the Duval Soil and Water Conservation Board and served until the time he was elected to the City Council in March 2007. Also prior to joining the Council, Clay served for several years as a member of the Greater Arlington / Beaches Citizens Planning Advisory Committee. In 2012, he was asked to join the Board of Directors for City Rescue Mission and in July 2014, began serving as City Council President after being chosen unanimously by his colleagues.

Clay realizes Jacksonville's most important issues are public safety and crime reduction, ensuring government is operating as fiscally sound as possible, capitalizing on economic development opportunities, and working hard to improve the overall quality of life for current and future residents of our city.

Clay is proud to represent District 1, the Arlington area, which includes Regency Square and neighborhoods off of Fort Caroline, Merrill, Lone Star, and Mt. Pleasant Roads. He and his wife, Jordan, have twin sons and the family attends First Baptist Church.

Clay can be reached at (904) 630-1389 or Clay@coj.net.

Under Florida law, email addresses are public records. If you do not want your email address published, do not send electronic mail to City Council Members or staff. Instead, contact the City Council by phone or in writing.

SECTION 2. BOARDS and COMMISSIONS APPOINTMENTS

The City of Jacksonville has various boards and commissions tasked to advise and/or oversee various functions and programs within the City. Most of these boards and commissions require City Council confirmation of membership appointments and several have members appointed directly by the City Council. Confirmation and direct appointment are both accomplished through Resolution of the City Council. In accordance with Council Rule 4.1101, new appointees must appear before the Rules Committee and may be interviewed at that time.

Most boards and commissions are governed by Chapters 50 and 58, Ordinance Code, however, some are authorized by the Charter or by Florida Statute. Generally, the boards and commissions act in an advisory capacity; however, many act as office holders and partially assume the authority of government officials. Because of this assumption of authority, appointees to non-advisory boards and commissions are required to take an oath of office, at the time of appointment, pursuant to Sec. 2.101, Ordinance Code. Members are also required to file financial disclosure through the City Office of Ethics, Compliance and Oversight and each must comply with Florida's "Government in the Sunshine" provisions.

Pursuant to Council Rule 1.201(g), the Council President is responsible for recommending to the Council persons for appointment by the Council. The exception to this rule is the Jacksonville-Duval County Council on Elder Affairs, which includes one member nominated by each of the 14 District Council Members.

Additionally, the membership of several boards and commissions includes Council Members, either in a voting or ex-officio capacity. Again, the Council President is tasked to make those appointments. The composition of a handful of boards and commissions also include Council Members appointed by the Mayor. Traditionally, the Mayor will seek the advice and counsel of the Council President before appointing Council Members to serve on boards and commissions.

Information about City Council appointment opportunities is available on the City Council webpage at http://www.coj.net/city-council/city-council-appointments.aspx. A listing of all City boards and commissions is online at http://www.coj.net/departments/boards-and-commissions.aspx.

Rachel Merritt, Information Systems Administrator, is the staff member responsible for maintaining the master list of City Council appointed and/or confirmed boards and commissions. She verifies eligibility and membership requirements and drafts legislation for appointments and confirmations. Ms. Merritt may be contacted at (904) 630-7234 or remerritt@coj.net.

SECTION 3. COMPUTER EQUIPMENT

Dell XPS 13" Laptop

In a cost reduction effort, the Office of City Council has agreed to have only one computer per Council Member instead of both a PC and a laptop.

The laptop is the ultraportable Dell XPS 13" laptop with the Intel 5 processor with carry case and wireless mouse. Along with your laptop you will have available an external monitor, speakers, keyboard, and mouse as well as a port replicator designed to make it much easier to connect/disconnect your laptop for portable use. Each office also has a color All in One printer/scanner/copier available.

Even though the laptop has Outlook installed locally, your City Email cannot be accessed using this local application unless you are physically plugged into the City's internal network. It is recommended you access your email via Internet Explorer using either webmail.coj.net or remote.coj.net. The latter will also give you access to your files saved to your network drives. It is strongly recommended that you save your critical files to network drive (F) since on the network drives are backed up each evening.

In addition to your laptop, there is also support for most smart phones which you may utilize to retrieve and manage your Outlook Email, Calendar, Tasks and Contacts should you elect to do so. These phones are capable of synchronizing your Outlook, meaning any changes you make to Outlook will be reflected on your device and vice versa.

Computer Problems

Steve Cassada, Information Systems Administrator, is the initial point of contact for computer problems. He will evaluate the problem and coordinate the appropriate repair. Mr. Cassada may be contacted at (904) 630-4482 or scassada@coj.net.
