Chardae Chaney

The meeting was called to order at 12:05 p.m. by Chardae Chaney the program coordinator. She introduced Lawsikia Hodges an attorney from the Office of General Counsel in the City Of Jacksonville. She discussed Roberts Rules of Order and how the council should operate effectively using these guidelines. She also provided handouts and practiced with the members.

After Ms. Hodges completed her presentation, Scott Gann the President of the Mayor's Young Leaders Advisory Council talked about his time being a part of the council for two years and his experience. After he spoke he opened the floor for the candidates who were interested in running for the office of the President, Vice President, Secretary, and 2 Ambassadors. Each candidate had two minutes to address the members and the members voted.

The officers of the Mayor's Young Leaders Advisory Council for 2017-2018 are: President- Darien Glover, Vice President-Haley Oglesby, Secretary-Christina Demps and 2 Ambassadors- Alexis Butler and Amann Doolabh. Once the officers were selected, the members met in their subcommittees. The committees are as: Issues, Project and Planning, Public Relations, Mayor's Report, Data Research, Bylaws, and Finance. The members also voted for committee chairs, co-chairs, and secretaries for each committee.

The members made a motion for mental health to be the project for this year. The motion was seconded and the floor was open for discussion. The members voted and selected mental health for the project event that will be held in March. The members broke off into their subcommittees and discussed themes and topics regarding mental health. The members discussed different ideas, but a motion was not made.

There were announcements by Mrs. Chaney and the meeting was adjourned by the newly elected president.
