2 years	75%
3 years	100%

Distributions

When can I receive a distribution from my account?

Qualifying distribution events are as follows:

- Retirement
- Permanent disability (as defined by the Internal Revenue Code and your Plan's provisions)
- Severance of employment (as defined by the Internal Revenue Code)
- Death (upon which your beneficiary receives your benefits)

What are my distribution options?

1. Leave the value of your account in the Plan until a future date. Your plan may contain provisions that provide for the automatic distribution of small balances. You should consult with your plan for more details.
2. Receive:
 - Periodic payments,
 - Partial lump sum with remainder paid as periodic payments, or
 - A lump sum
3. Roll over your account balance to a 401(a), 401(k), 403(b) or governmental 457(b) plan that accepts such rollovers or to an IRA.

As with any financial decision, you are encouraged to discuss moving money between accounts, including rollovers, with a financial advisor and to consider costs, risks, investment options and limitations prior to investing.

What happens to my account when I die?

Your designated beneficiary(ies) will receive the remaining value of your account, if any. Your beneficiary(ies) must contact an Empower retirement plan advisor to request a distribution. Log in to your account at www.COJDCP.com to update your beneficiary designation.

Fees

Are there any recordkeeping or administrative fees to participate in the Plan?

The City covers your administrative fees while employed with the City. Once a participant severs employment, participants will be debited administrative fees. Please contact your local Empower retirement plan advisor for more information about any potential investment option fees.

Are there any fees for the investment options?

Each investment option has its own operating expenses. These fees are deducted by each investment option's management company before the daily price or performance is calculated. Fees pay for trading individual securities within the investment options and other management expenses.

Funds may impose redemption fees and/or transfer restrictions if assets are held for less than the published holding period. Asset allocation funds are generally subject to a fund operating expense at the fund level, as well as prorated fund operating expenses of each underlying fund in which they invest. For more information, see the fund's prospectus and/or disclosure documents.

Are there any distribution fees?

There are no charges for distributions taken upon the occurrence of any of the qualifying distribution events previously listed. Before taking a distribution, contact your local Empower retirement plan advisor to get more information.

Loans

May I take a loan from my Plan account?

No, loans are not permitted.

Qualified Domestic Relations Order (QDRO)

May I process a QDRO from my account?

Your Plan does not allow QDROs.

Taxes

How does my participation in the Plan affect my taxes?

Because your contribution is taken out of your paycheck before taxes are calculated, you will pay less in current income tax. Any earnings on all employee contributions are tax-deferred until the money is withdrawn.

Employer contributions and any earnings are tax-deferred until you withdraw money, usually during retirement.

Distributions may be subject to ordinary income tax. Distributions made prior to the investor reaching age 59 1/2 may incur a 10% early withdrawal penalty. Participants who separate from employment in or after the year in which age 50 is reached may take a withdrawal without incurring the 10% early withdrawal penalty. For purposes of this exception, you cannot have separated from employment prior age 50 even if you wait until age 50 to take a withdrawal.*
