Program Strategy: Mentoring
Summary of Program: The Get REAL! Program connects at-risk girls with caring community members and partners who serve as mentors. The Get REAL! Program positively impacts the girls, schools and mentors as well as the community. The Get REAL! Program is a group mentoring program ideally using one mentor per 15 girls. Get REAL! has four basic components: reading skills, life skills, community care projects and enhancement programs. The curriculum also focuses on self-esteem, social development and interpersonal relationships, and is a structured support group using three, eight-week modules.
Program Overall Status: We are currently serving girls at The Bridge of NE Florida, Robert E Lee High School, Matthew Gilbert Middle School, Jeff Davis Middle School, JEB Stuart Middle School, Stilwell Middle School and Eugene Butler Middle School.
Successes: The topics covered in troops have been: July- communication & peer pressure, August-Community Service Project planning and school year prep. September- conflict resolution and anti-bullying strategies. October: continued with conflict resolution and peer to peer communication. November: Partnered with Aging True for Meals on Wheels Holiday Cards. December: Trip to CGC and Holiday cards for MOW. January: Trip to camp. February: To align with the GS cookie program, girls focused on financial literacy and goal setting for the month of February. They also planned out their spring break trip to during the month of March. Girls celebrated Black History Month by pairing off in each troop, selecting an iconic African American woman to research and create a trifold display, shadowbox or multi-dimensional poster to present to the rest of the troop. Several of the troops had their projects displayed around their schools.
Challenges: no challenges this reporting cycle.
