Program Name: Project LEAP (Library Enhanced Access Program)
Department Name: Jacksonville Public Library
Date: 7/7/17
Prepared By: Jennifer Giltrop, Interim Director		Contact Info: 904-630-1636
Program Strategy: Family Literacy Success
Program Summary: Provides literacy and educational programs for residents of the Jax Journey target areas (zip codes 32202, 32205, 32206, 32208, 32209, 32210, 32211, 32218, 32244, and 32254). The project has three primary components: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Story time programs for parents and children ages 0-5 to attend together over a nine-week period, with a goal of habituating parents' practice of behaviors known to increase early literacy in children ages 0 – 5. 2. Nine-week courses of GED classes for adults (target age: 18 to 24), with a goal of preparing students to complete the GED test successfully. Nine-week Conversation Essentials grammar and vocabulary drop-in groups will be offered for native and non-native adults to improve verbal communication. 3. Nine-week cycles of technology classes for teens and adults (target age: 16 to 24), with a goal of increasing the digital literacy of these students in order to empower them to achieve educational and economic success.

Monthly Highlights (Narrative):

- JPL has another GED® graduate: Kaos F.! Kaos is a really awesome 21 year old man who attended class with us at St. Paul United Methodist Church in Arlington. Kaos plans to start in an electrician apprenticeship soon!
- A recent early literacy parent class conducted at Don Brewer Head Start had 5 parents complete at least 4 sessions. In a survey, when asked what they liked most about the sessions one parent wrote “The take home things I can do with my kids at home and in the classroom and learning different ways to encourage learning to make it fun and exciting.”
- Six family literacy storytimes have been scheduled for members of “Mentoring Mamas”, a peer-to-peer mentoring program designed to support mompreneurs in addressing the unique issues faced in raising a family while growing a business.
