V. PUBLIC COMMENTS

Stanley Scott with the African American Recovery Think Tank. When he comes to a meeting, the blue speaker cards are in a different location. When it comes to the Arlington area research has shown that there is no economic development for the African American community. Asked why there is not a conscious equitable opportunity for people in the underserved communities. As it relates to crime, there are four different types of crime: emotional, spiritual, mental and the physical is only the end result of the other three.

VI. ADJOURNMENT

There being no further business, Chair Newby adjourned the Renew Arlington CRA Board meeting at approximately 1:14 p.m.
