SMALL BUSINESS SATURDAY

After the hectic Black Friday shopping extravaganza that fell over our city the day after Thanksgiving, it was nice to be able to have a relaxing shopping experience on Small Business Saturday, Nov. 29th. Many Jaxvillians kicked off their Small Business Saturday shopping at one of our favorite local events, Riverside Arts Market. There were over 150 small businesses at this month's RAM event! It was wonderful to see just how many people came out on Saturday to Support Jacksonville's small businesses. From dining small to shopping small, the streets of Jacksonville were filled with the holiday spirit as locals shopped at their favorite boutiques and dined at Jax's hidden gems.

QUICKBOOKS WORKSHOP

This month marked the 3rd and 4th QuickBooks workshops being provided by P.A. Wallace & Associates. These were the final two QuickBooks workshops in their series. Keep an eye out for more workshops on different topics from Ms. Wallace's group in the upcoming months.

GET YOUR BUSINESS ONLINE: GOOGLE WORKSHOP

On November 13th the JSEB office was excited to host it's very first GOOGLE sponsored workshop. This workshop, provided by our partners at Google, began with a brief video and concluded with multiple small businesses creating their own website AND putting their businesses on Google Maps. The workshop is called Get Your Business Online or GYBO for short & takes small businesses through the steps of creating a strong online presence for their business. There will be another GYBO workshop in January 2015.
