COVID-19 PROCEDURES

The City of Jacksonville is complying with CDC guidelines for its public buildings. Public buildings are operating at limited capacity and social distancing measures may be in place. All seats may be marked to ensure safe spacing between individuals. Overflow seating may be available in other rooms within the building and citizens may be asked to rotate into and out of rooms to speak at the public meeting. All visitors to public buildings may be required to comply with additional COVID-19 safety procedures, and pursuant to the Americans with Disabilities Act, reasonable accommodations may be available for individuals who are unable to comply with the additional COVID-19 safety procedures, as determined on a case by case basis.

Additionally, upon entry to public buildings, all visitors must submit to the following screening procedures:

- answer questions on the Screening Form provided at the screening desk
- have their temperature taken with a contactless infrared thermometer

As a result of additional procedures and precautions necessitated by COVID-19, it is recommended that you plan to arrive earlier than the meeting time so as to give you plenty of time to complete these additional procedures.

ADA and TDD ASSISTANCE

Pursuant to the Americans with Disabilities Act, accommodations for persons with disabilities are available upon request. Please allow 1-2 business days' notification to process; last minute requests will be accepted, but may not be possible to fulfill.
