

PROCLAMATION

ONE CITY. ONE JACKSONVILLE.

- WHEREAS: Seniors are one of Jacksonville’s greatest assets and their past contributions continue to be a vital part of Jacksonville’s rich history; and
- WHEREAS: Residents of assisted living communities are active members of our community, offering their knowledge, life experiences, and involvement; and
- WHEREAS: Assisted living is a critical long-term care option for seniors and individuals with disabilities that fosters choice, dignity, and independence; and
- WHEREAS: Assisted living communities are committed to excellence, innovation, and the advancement of person-centered care; and
- WHEREAS: Assisted living facilities and their associates dedicate their time to provide high-quality care ensuring residents’ lives are filled with joy, entertainment, socialization, spiritual needs, nutrition, friendship, and compassion; and
- WHEREAS: During Assisted Living Week, assisted living communities across the country are encouraged to organize activities and events which celebrate the individuality of residents, the dedication of staff, and the deep connections formed in these settings.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, LENNY CURRY, by virtue of the authority vested in me as mayor of Jacksonville, Florida, do hereby proclaim September 13-19, 2020 as in Jacksonville and encourage all citizens to volunteer in an assisted living community, visit friends and loved ones who reside at these communities, and learn more about how assisted living services benefit our community.

IN WITNESS THEREOF, this 19th day of August in the year Two Thousand Twenty
