

PROCLAMATION

ONE CITY. ONE JACKSONVILLE.

- WHEREAS: Ken Amaro devoted 42 years of his professional life to not only giving a voice to the voiceless, but also highlighting and solving the conditions which caused the voicelessness; and
- WHEREAS: Ken helped thousands of individuals and families recover countless amounts of money, settle disputes, and solve problems during his four decades of reporting; and
- WHEREAS: Ken served as a volunteer member of boards and organizations whose primary purpose is to better the lives of the people of Jacksonville; and
- WHEREAS: The service Ken provided to the people of Jacksonville for 42 years helped make our community a better and safer place to live for everyone; and
- WHEREAS: The important work done by Ken held the powerful accountable to fulfill their promises, made certain corruption was pulled from the shadows, and placed a spotlight on those working to make Jacksonville a world-class city.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, LENNY CURRY, by virtue of the authority vested in me as mayor of Jacksonville, Florida, do hereby proclaim December 1, 2021 as in Jacksonville and encourage all citizens to commit to a day of service on behalf of those who benefit from their skills, knowledge, and compassion.

KEN AMARO DAY

IN WITNESS THEREOF, this 22nd day of Nov.
in the year Two Thousand Twenty-one.

MAYOR

CITY OF JACKSONVILLE, FLORIDA