Call to Order and Comments. Chairman Jolly called the meeting to order at approximately 4:20 p.m.

1. Approval of Minutes. Mr. Weinstein moved to approve the minutes from the February 19, 2008 meeting, seconded by Mr. Mackesy. All members approved said minutes.

2. Purpose of Meeting. Mr. Maltz opened the meeting with a discussion of a meeting he had with David Valentine following Mr. Valentine's request to the Mayor's Office to meet regarding suggestions he had for reducing the jail population. During Mr. Maltz's meeting with Mr. Valentine, he suggested that bondsmen could more efficiently perform services currently offered by JSO's Pre-trial Services program. In addition, Mr. Valentine expressed concern regarding the amount of time needed to process individuals once they have posted bond.

Mr. Maltz then presented to the committee a draft report concerning the subcommittee's findings and recommendations to be made to the Law Enforcement and Deterrence Committee. The remainder of the meeting consisted of an in-depth discussion of the content of the draft report. Committee members agreed that another subcommittee meeting would be necessary to complete the report.

Next Meeting. The next Administration of Justice Subcommittee meeting was tentatively scheduled for March 24, 2008 at 4:15 p.m., pending availability of all committee members on that date. The meeting will be coordinated by Mr. Maltz's office.

Adjournment. Meeting adjourned at approximately 6:20 p.m.
